

NATIONAL SYMPOSIUM
ON JAPANESE LANGUAGE EDUCATION

2018 NSJLE : Call for Papers

The biennial 4th National Symposium on Japanese Language Education (NSJLE) will be held on Friday 2nd and Saturday 3rd November 2018 at UTS (University of Technology Sydney). The theme of 2018 “Bigger, Broader, Better!”

We are looking for presenters who have research, a study, or a program to share with peers at the symposium. Educators from every level of education, primary, secondary and tertiary and stakeholders involved in Japanese Language Education are encouraged to apply.

Call for Papers

Open : 12 February 2018

Close : 8 April 2018

Language : English or Japanese

Required : Abstract for the screening & selection

(up to 300 words in English or up to 600 words in Japanese)

Biography (up to 150 words in English)

Go to <http://nsjle.org.au/> for more details

Presentations

Type : Oral presentations (45 min)

Panel presentations (90min)

Content : Limited to unpublished works only

Encouraged topics : Advocacy

Innovative programs – models for success

Australian Curriculum: Languages – Japanese

The Current State of Japanese Language Education

ICT

Bilingual/Immersion Program

Action Research

Oral presentations

Practice reports, research presentations. Total of 45 min (presentation time 35min and Q&A 10min).

For selected papers, the following items are requested for submission after the outcome notification;

- Detailed abstract for the program
(up to 500 - 600 words in English or up to 1000 – 1200 words in Japanese)
- Photo for the program

Panel Presentations

A paper may have multiple presenters (up to 6 co-presenters) within a 90 min slot. The lead presenter is requested to submit a summarised abstract for a screening & selection on behalf of the whole panel in the application from (up to 300 words in English or up to 600 words in Japanese).

For selected papers, the following items are requested for submission after the outcome notification;

- Detailed abstracts for the program from each of the presenters (up to 500-600 words in English or up to 1000-1200 words in Japanese)
- Biographies from each of the presenters (up to 150 words in English)
- Photos of each of the presenters for the program

Note for writing abstracts for screening and selection

Please do not enter any information in your abstract which would allow you to be identified (such as your name or affiliated institution).

Outcome notification

The paper will be selected by anonymous review panel.

The results will be announced on 1 June 2018.

Proceedings

Presenters will be invited to submit their paper or practical report to be considered for the official proceedings, to be published after the conference. More details coming soon.

Mailing List

Would you like to stay up-to-date with the latest news about 2018 NSJLE? A mailing List is available from the NSJLE website. Go to <http://nsjle.org.au/> and click "JOIN MAILING LIST"!

Registration

Please note that all presenters are requested to pay for registration.

		Early Bird Rates (7 May – 29 July)	Standard Rates (30 July – 14 October)
Standard Pass	2 days	$300	$350
	1day	$180	$200
Student Pass *FULL time Bachelor or FULL time Master Student ONLY (Photo copy of 2018 Student ID must be sent to us)	2days	$200	$250
	1day	$130	$150

Enquiries

The Japan Foundation, Sydney on (02) 8239 0055 or coordinators@jpf.org.au